Jackson: Emma Bell

William Ware's trial is tomorrow - hhh this is in connection with the Jackson State incidents of several nights ago. His charges are distributing leaflets without a permit and inciting to riot. They are trying to get Carsie Hall to defend him.

two girls working in the President's office at Jackson State lost their jobs and one boy hhh expelled from school for speaking in the dining hall in favor of demonstrations. hhh will be

All baracades have been removed from Lynch Street (they had been put up during the 'riots').

Atlanta:

A man named Mr. Usher called the office this evening and reported that he had gone to Toddle House on Peachtree near Buckhead this morning and had been refused service. John Lewis called the manager of that Toddle House and the man said that the restaurant was wide open, that he would talk to the employee involved and that Mr. Usher should return and he would be served.
