

Henry Brown [1964]

Please fill out the enclosed questionnaire in as much detail as possible. Use additional sheets if necessary and attach. The information which you give may be used in a Community Relations resume of you as a Civil Rights worker, so bear this in mind in completing this form.

Organization and Job Description: This should explain what project you are working on and where, what your position and responsibilities consist of, what local groups you or the project are affiliated with, etc. If applicable, you might describe a regular day's activity.

Family Background: In addition to a brief family sketch, you should include information about any members of your family who are involved in the movement or are prominent in their community.

History...: This should include your first contact with the movement, first movement activities, and a summary of your work with the movement including any interesting or particularly important actions or projects in which you have been involved.

Personal History: This should include your schooling, interests, hobbies and anything else (incidents, activities, etc.) relative or not relative to the movement which might be of interest.

Comments: These should be remarks or statements made by persons involved in Civil Rights activity whom you have worked with. They should concern your work, personality or commitment to the movement.

W. A. Webb