Dear Meatball:

Thanks alot for sending the catalogues of both the ILGWU and the AMWA fil libraries. The only problem is that I had thought that the films would be rent-free and now discover that they are up to $7.50 per film.

I was wondering, considering the assistance we have always gotten from the ILGWU and the AMWA, if we might be able to be regarded as a local in terms of the renting of these films. It would be such a shame to have to give up the opportunity of showing the films (and there are some really good ones for the purpose we'd be using them for) just because of our inability to pay for them.

The films from the ILGWU which I'm particularly interested in are: "High Wall", "Murrow-McCarthy Debate", "Neighbors", and "You Can Win Elections". From the ACWA library, I found these films to be of interest: "The Inheritance", "The Challenge", "Burden of Truth" and "Harvest of Shame". It would be great if we could be treated as a local in terms of rental rates for these films.

Time is getting short so I would need an answer to this as soon as possible. I would appreciate it if you could call me and leave word and I will return the call on our special WATS line. Thanks alot for anything you can do on this.
