P. O. Box 2212, Culver City, California 90232

July 13, 1964

TO OUR ELECTED AND APPOINTED REPRESENTATIVES:

May we respectfully call your attention to, and ask action upon, the fundamental and reasonable request in the attached petition, originating at a first meeting in the Los Angeles area of Mississippi volunteers?

The eight hundred and seventy two signatures were obtained in a three-day period ... indicative, we feel, of the wide-spread and spontaneous surge of concern felt here. Thank you.

RICHARD WILSON, Chairman
