Taken by Joyce Barrett via phone from Phillip Savage in Jacksonville, Fla., Friday, March 26, 4:00 P.M.

Phillip Savage has been sent from Philadelphia to Jacksonville/by the NAACP on a temporary basis. He said that late last week the Mayor swore in 400 Firemen as deputy policemen, and made public statements on TV, etc., that "these illegal demonstrations would not be tolerated". Demonstrations took place Saturday and Monday. The first 200 people arrested this week were peaceful demonstrators, not people doing violence. Jacksonville was quiet last night and demonstrations are continuing.
