Dear Sirs:

It is my understanding that you wish to publish a work which may include my affidavit or statement dated no date concerning an incident in Mississippi on or about no date.

The purpose of this letter is to give my consent to the use of my name and address and the affidavit or statement described above, with the understanding that the royalty resulting from the sale of the books will be paid to The Misseduc Foundation, whose funds will assist the education of students in and from Mississippi.

This consent applies to all editions published of the said work in all languages throughout the world and the presentation or adaptation in any other form or medium that may be made of your said book or in its promotion.

Very truly yours,

Judy Richardson
