Faith dear:

I talked to your Ma and got a letter from the Crumb and both said you are O.k. for which I am thankful. I hope that the dragon is taking care of you, as I told him to do.

When and if you have any time at all I would be most interested to hear from you and to know exactly what you are up to. I only hope you are getting enough to eat. The last Student Voice I got sounded grim.

If you now have another address, please send it to me and if goodies are acceptable drop me a card and say what sort - cookies, canned stuff or what is in order?

I am very glad I went out to see Sam and Mitzi and I also enjoyed my visit in San Fran. Sam took me up in his plane and that was a real thrill. I also went to Marineland which I enjoyed thoroughly.

All of this must sound pretty prosaic, considering what you are up to. Jack and Alice were here for dinner last night and I told them about you. They were most concerned and interested and, I think, proud.

About the check I sent you for college. It was to help a bit with school, clothes or whatever, but there were no strings attached. Of course you are to keep it and use it now if that is what you want to do and need it now - I should think that this would be more than possible. You were sweet to offer to send it back, but it wasn't that kind of a present at all. I remember a friend of my mother's sending me a check when I was living in Paris and just about to return and "come out" (nauseating phrase and do, I may say). I expect she thought I would get some smashing evening dress with it. Knowing me, you will not be surprised to learn that I had a riding habit made! I told her this and she was quite pleased.

I need to talk more with your Ma about S NCC and my feelings - rather vague I am sorry to say - about it before I can send them any more money. If you want to spend the money I sent you there, that is what you should do. In other words it is yours to do with as you see fit. Boy, am I wordy!

Dearie, I think about you and I worry and I would pray, if I prayed about anything. Take care of yourself and don't be foolish - I guess they won't let you - I hope so.

Much love to you and do write me if you have time,

DeKo
